SHORT LOCALS.

Brief Items of Interest Throughout the Town and County.

Have you registered for the town election yet? If not, do it to-day. Don't put it off.

Mrs. Henry F. Bamberg entertained a number of her friends Friday afternoon of last week in honor of Mrs. J. E. Felder, of Cope.

Work is progressing nicely on the new home of Mr. J. W. Price, which he is having erected next to the home of his brother, Mr. E. B. Price.

The town election is only a few weeks off, and those who have property interests here had better be getting together and getting out a town ticket.

Deputy Collector Jenkins, of the internal revenue service, spent several days in the city last week, no doubt collecting revenue licenses from the dealers in whiskey.

Petitions are being circulated in Barnwell county asking for an election on the question of voting back the dispensary into that county. We learn that the petitions are being numerously signed.

The oil mill closed down last week for the season, and will shut down until this fall when seed commence to come in from this year's cotton crop. The result of the present year's work is very satisfactory.

Mr. John Kirkland, a son of Mr. Frank Kirkland, of the Colston section, who has been suffering from a stroke of paralysis for some time, was carried to the hospital in Augusta last week for treatment.

This is the last week to register for the approaching town election, and every citizen should register. You cannot vote unless you have registered this year. Don't put off this important matter. Register to-day!

The Southern Express Company has notified Agent D. M. Eaves that it will accept and ship free packages of money or clothing and provisions not exceeding 100 pounds in weight for the flood sufferers in the West.

The appearance of Main street will be greatly improved when the remodeling of the stores of G. Moye Dickinson and G. A. Ducker & Bro. is finished. Now if the town could afford to pave this street, what an improvement it would be!

The Colston school, which has been taught by Miss Annie Hartzog, a daughter of Mr. V. J. Hartzog, this year, will close on Friday, April 11th with a picnic and an address by Rev. W. R. McMillan. The public is cordially invited to attend.

If every post office in the country is doing as much parcel post business as the Bamberg office, the business must be immense. The mails here have been very heavy since the first of January on account of the parcels post, and are steadily increasing all the time.

Only a few more days remain in which to register for the approaching city election. The books close Saturday night of this week. Better register so that you may vote. No one can vote in this election who has not a registration certificate issued this year.

Dr. Hayne, of the State board of health, spent last Thursday in the city, and during the day went over and inspected the town. The same evening in the town hall he delivered an address to a good audience on the work of the State board as it related to towns and communities. It is to be hoped his visit and address will result in much good to Bamberg.

The Herald was delighted to publish so many live news letters and communications last week, and we hope our friends will keep it up. There is no better way of advertising your community than through letting the people elsewhere know what is going on, and to read last week's issue of The Herald one would know that there was life and activity in many sections of Bamberg county. Keep up the good work, friends.

In conversation with the editor last Saturday afternoon, Mr. G. E. Hutto asked us to call attention to some road work. He said that on the new road out beyond the oil mill a force of hands were filling up the holes in the road, but the dirt was being taken from the edge of the road, and as the road through the bay was already too narrow, this method would leave the sides of the road full of holes and make it impossible for vehicles to pass each other. Mr. Hutto said he did not want to advertise himself as a kicker, but he thought public matters in which all the people were interested should be given publicity and thus brought to the attention of those in authority in order that they might be remedied.

See the new parcel post scale, latest and best thing out, at The Herald Book Store.

Mr. H. N. Bellinger is now keeping books for G. Frank Bamberg, he having gone there April 1st.

Dr. J. D. Chapman, financial agent of Greenville Female College, preached at the Baptist church in this city last Sunday.

The play at the graded school auditorium last Friday evening was quite a success. More than one hundred dollars was realized, which is fully enough to pay the debt on the piano.

Since Mr. A. M. Brabham has declined to make the race for mayor, the many friends of Mr. C. W. Rentz are urging him to offer for the position, and it is said that he will likely do so.

Several prominent business men of the city have suggested the name of Mr. I. N. Dunn, superintendent of Bamberg Cotton Mills Company, as a good man for alderman, and they hereby nominate him for the position.

Mr. J. S. Sykes, the new chief of police for Bamberg, arrived in the city last Sunday and assumed the duties of his position Monday. Mr. Sykes was formerly deputy sheriff of Sumter county, and comes highly recommended.

Mr. J. A. J. Rice, of this community, left this (Wednesday) morning for Charleston, where he is to be married to Mrs. Annie Cox, formerly of Denmark. They will return home this evening. Their many friends extend congratulations and good wishes.

City council held a regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening of this week. Messrs. F. M. Simmons, A. S. Easterling, and B. S. Johns were appointed as managers to conduct the city election to be held the first Tuesday in May. Apart from this only routine business was transacted.

We have been asked by several contestants whether the winners of special prizes can have these same votes counted on the piano. Of course. One contestant may win as many special prizes as she can and not affect her standing for the piano. All votes are counted for the piano.

The various committees in charge of the work of soliciting subscriptions for the erection of a brick dormitory at the Carlisle Fitting School are beginning their work this week, and so far as we have been able to learn they are meeting with considerable success. There has been subscribed without any canvassing the sum of $8,600, and this from only a few people. It seems that the dormitory will be built, and the people of Bamberg could make no better investment.

An Urgent Call to the White Preachers of Bamberg County.

The white preachers of all christian denominations are hereby requested to meet with the undersigned at Trinity Methodist Church, Bamberg, S. C., Tuesday morning, April the 8th, 1913, for the purpose of consulting together about matters relating to the interests of temperance in our county. Entertainment will be provided for all who come.

M. M. Brabham, Pastor of the Methodist Church, at Denmark, S. C.
J. D. Huggins, Pastor of the Baptist church at Denmark, S. C.

W. R. McMillan, Pastor of the Baptist Church, at Bamberg, S. C.

W. H. Hodges, Pastor of the Methodist Church, at Bamberg, S. C.

Fifteen deaconesses have been employed as church deaconesses this year. They show 16,334 visits made and 1,745 received from church people who have needed their help. They have conducted 490 religious services and induced many to attend church. More than a hundred conversions are reported, while 225 children are taught in night schools and 208 in industrial clubs.—Missionary Bulletin.

There will be nine deaconesses consecrated at the council meeting on the fourteenth of this month. This is a small number when compared to the needs. Calls have come for 175 for this year.

Should not this open door lead many of our women who have no home responsibility to devote their lives to this service for humanity?

Great apple diving contest at the Pastime Theatre this (Thursday) evening at 8 o'clock.—Adv.

Address by Dr. Hayne.

Dr. Hayne's lecture on sanitation at the town hall on last Thursday evening was both instructive and amusing, containing just the message needed for a town which wants to grow and increase its population and business—for health is the first requisite of growth, either in an individual or a town.

First of all he stressed the importance of a town having a live board of health which should have entire charge of sanitary conditions in the town, and a mayor and council which will support them in their decisions. Dr. Hayne was surprised to find that a town council would allow the railroad authorities to neglect their property as they do in Bamberg. There is a law against the standing of water besides the embankments, with a fine of $100.00 attached to it. This law also providing for the keeping up of the property for a certain distance on each side of the railroad. Why are they not forced to keep this law? In other towns they do keep it. Dr. Hayne also advocated the use of septic tanks where there is no sewerage system, saying that the makeshifts used in this and other small towns in place of sewerage were unmentionable and a menace to public health. While deploring conditions in Bamberg, he was encouraging to those interested by saying that there was no reason why, with the town well-drained, septic tanks used by those owning a water works system, vigilant board of health and a wide-awake council, Bamberg should not soon be classed among the most healthful and sanitary towns of the South.

The civic league stands ready to contribute all of its funds towards the betterment of sanitary conditions.

Oscar Martens Dead.

Last Saturday a rumor got abroad that a white man named Oscar Martens had committed suicide, but an investigation showed this to be an error.

Martens was a painter by trade and recently had been painting at the new residence of Mr. J. D. Copeland, Jr. On Friday he got to drinking wood alcohol with which shellac was mixed which irritated his stomach very much and on Saturday he was taking morphine to relieve the pain. He kept on taking the drug until he took too much, and when Dr. H. J. Stuckey was summoned, at about half past four o'clock Saturday afternoon, Martens was unconscious and in a dying condition. The physician worked very hard to save his life, but he was too near death before medical aid reached him.

Martens was about 28 or 30 years old. He came to Bamberg as driver in a circus some years ago, and was discharged by the circus at Barnwell. He drifted back to Denmark and got on the county chain gang from there from some offense, possibly drunkenness, and when his time was out he came to Bamberg and had been here most of the time since. He was a good painter, and worked on several buildings here. He was of a German family, his folks living in Danville, Ill., and those who saw letters from his sisters and brothers say they were evidently people of intelligence and education. They were notified by wire of his death. But Martens poor fellow, possessed an inordinate craving for liquor, and when he made a little money it went that way, or most of it. The body was buried here Sunday afternoon.

Miss Leonard Folk Entertains.

One of the most enjoyable social occasions of this season was a party given by Miss Leonard Folk Monday evening of this week in honor of Miss McLeod, of Converse College. Bunco and Rook were played and much fun was had. After the games was over we were served with several courses of refreshments. Then Misses McLeod and Elise Rentz rendered some music to the crowd, which was enjoyed by all.

Those present were: Misses McLeod, Annie Lou Byrd, Bernice Counts, Genevieve Kirsch, Ollie Lee Dobson, Inez Lemacks, Estelle Rutledge, Mary Livingston, Mozelle Copeland, Elise Rentz, Bessie Armstrong, Athlene King, Bell Cooner, Louise Folk, Wilhelmina Folk, Harrie Dell Free, Ruth Herndon, Franke Folk; Messrs. E. H. Henderson, James McGowan, Charlie Black, Charlie Ayer, A. M. Denbow, Frank Folk, Dr. H. J. Stuckey, Bissell Beach, Charlie D. Free, Clarence Black, LeRoy Cooner, James Armstrong, R. L. Merriwether, H. B. Anderson, Henry Stokes, H. N. Folk, Tillman Felder, Willie Hodges, and Willie Dickinson, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Guilds. ONE PRESENT.

Mack Sandifer, white, aged 13, shot and killed William Samuels, colored, about the same age, at Reevesville, Dorchester county, Saturday afternoon. They came home from the field quarrelling, and Sandifer went into the house and got a parlor rifle and shot and killed Samuels.

Death of Mrs. Kenyon.

Mrs. M. C. Kenyon, mother of Mrs. A. Rice, died at the home of Mr. A. Rice in this city last Friday, after an illness of a few weeks. Paralysis was the cause of her death. The body was carried to St. George, her old home, Saturday morning and interred there, Rev. W. R. McMillan of this city, going down and conducting the services. Mrs. Kenyon was seventy-four years old, and is survived by a number of relatives. She had made her home in this city, with Mr. and Mrs. A. Rice, for several years. A number of friends of the family went from this city to the funeral exercises.

Dr. Snyder's Visit.

Dr. H. N. Snyder, president of Wofford college, Spartanburg, and also president of the Carlisle Fitting School, spent last Monday and Monday night in the city. He had been to Charleston, where he delivered several addresses on Sunday, and he came by Bamberg on his way home. He returned to Spartanburg Tuesday morning. While here he discussed with the local authorities the plans for an enlargement of the Fitting School and Monday evening he delivered a very fine address at the school auditorium. We wish that every business man in Bamberg could have heard him. It was certainly one of the finest things of the kind we have ever listened to, and some people in Bamberg should have heard him, for we believe they would have realized in some measure at least what a valuable asset the school is to the town.

Much Liquor in This Shipment.

A letter was received at the office of Sheriff A. M. Salley this morning from Magistrate Tyler at Norway informing the Sheriff that a large shipment of whiskey was in charge of the railroad at that point. It was stated in the letter that there were two shipments alleged to be for two blind tigers in Bamberg county. There are 800 half pints of whiskey in the two shipments. — Orangeburg Evening News.

The New Dormitory.

No general canvass has been made, but the fund for the new brick dormitory for the Carlisle Fitting School is growing nicely. A few friends of the school have indicated to the committee the amounts they expect to contribute. It will take about $20,000 to build and equip this building, and if the other citizens of the town will respond to this call, "greater Carlisle" will be assured. It is a source of gratification to the committee and friends of the school that some of these parties came to the committee voluntarily and made their subscription. We hope that others will do likewise and not wait for the committee to see them. Let's get together and give Bamberg a great educational institution.

Those who have subscribed are as follows:

Mrs. M. A. Bamberg	$2,000.00
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barr	1,000.00
Mrs. Hattie B. Stubbs	1,000.00
Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Folk	500.00

B. T. Felder	25.00
G. P. Harmon	50.00
Mrs. J. A. Wyman	250.00
J. M. Grimes	50.00
H. N. Folk	50.00
Total,	$8,700.00

There were 26 contestants from 25 many high schools at Clinton on Friday for the championship in declamation. All spoke in the morning and were thinned out by the committee to 11, and these spoke at night. Lorimer Gaffney, of Gaffney, won. His subject was "The Chariot Race."

Comparative Digestibility of Food

Made with different Baking Powders

From a Series of Elaborate Chemical Tests:

An equal quantity of bread (biscuit) was made with each of three different kinds of baking powder—cream of tartar, phosphate, and alum—and submitted separately to the action of the digestive fluid, each for the same length of time.

The relative percentage of the food digested is shown as follows:

Bread made with
Royal Cream of Tartar Powder:
100 Per Cent. Digested

Bread made with phosphate powder:
68 3/4 Per Cent. Digested

Bread made with alum powder:
67 3/4 Per Cent. Digested

These tests, which are absolutely reliable and unprejudiced, make plain a fact of great importance to everyone: Food raised with Royal, a cream of tartar Baking Powder, is shown to be entirely digestible, while the alum and phosphate powders are found to largely retard the digestion of the food made from them.

Undigested food is not only wasted food, but it is the source of very many bodily ailments.

Mrs. O'Hern Entertained.

From the Bainbridge, Ga., social news, published in the Atlanta Constitution of Sunday, March 30th, we take the following:

For the house guests, Mrs. W. L. Spearing, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. J. D. O'Hern, of Lakeland, Fla.; Mrs. A. C. Davenport, of Thomasville; Mrs. James Bonneyman, of Birmingham; Mrs. F. E. Land, of Dawson; Miss Catherine Cowdery, of Lakeland, Fla.; Miss Betty Fudge, of Atlanta; and Miss Emmie Yockey, of Jacksonville, Fla. Mrs. B. D. Fudge entertained Tuesday with a luncheon at the Callahan. The color scheme was carried out in violet and silver place cards, favors and tiny bonbon boxes.

Mr. B. D. Fudge and Mr. S. H. Brantley gave a dance Tuesday at the Elks' club rooms complimentary to Mrs. W. L. Spearing, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. James Bonneyman, of Birmingham; Mrs. J. D. O'Hern, of Lakeland, Fla.; Miss Betty Fudge, of Atlanta; Miss Catherine Cowdery, of Lakeland, Fla.; Mrs. F. E. Land, of Dawson, and Miss Emmie Yockey, of Jacksonville, Fla. The parlors were attractively decorated in cut flowers and palms, the national colors being the color scheme in the ball room.

Mrs. A. D. Graves and Mrs. Erie Donaldson gave a sewing party Wednesday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. B. D. Fudge; Mrs. W. L. Spearing, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. James Bonneyman, of Birmingham; Mrs. J. D. O'Hern, of Lakeland, Fla.; Mrs. F. E. Land, of Dawson; Mrs. J. R. Pottle, of Atlanta; Miss Betty Fudge, of Atlanta; Miss Catherine Cowdery, of Lakeland, Fla., and Miss Emmie Yockey, of Jacksonville, Fla. Mrs. C. C. Harrell and Mrs. A. L. Townsend entertained informally Thursday morning with a sewing party for Mrs. B. D. Fudge and the guests of her house party. Assisting Mrs. Harrell and Mrs. Townsend were Mrs. J. I. Subers, Mrs. Ben Dickenson, Mrs. J. R. Pottle, of Atlanta, Mrs. T. A. Ausley, Mrs. M. H. Townsend and Mrs. W. S. Townsend.

Mrs. B. D. Fudge gave a luncheon Thursday in honor of her visitors. The guests were Mrs. W. L. Spearing, of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. James Bonneyman, of Birmingham; Mrs. E. T. Hines, Mrs. Boen Belcher, Mrs. J. D. O'Hern, of Lakeland, Fla.; Mrs. J. I. Subers, Mrs. C. C. Harrell, Mrs. Robert H. May, Miss Betty Fudge, of Atlanta, Mrs. Arthur L. Townsend, Mrs. A. D. O'Brien, Mrs. T. A. Ausley, Mrs. F. E. Land, of Dawson, Mrs. Chisolm Ausley, Miss Catherine Cowdery, of Lakeland, Fla., Miss Frances Kwiecki and Miss Emmie Yockey, of Jacksonville, Fla. The table was especially attractive with a centre decoration of Killarney roses and maiden-hair fern.

The Supreme court has set the hearing of the case against Barnard B. Evans for April 14th. It is a proceeding instituted to disbar him from the practice of law.

An A Grade School.

At the Fitting School auditorium Monday evening Headmaster Guilds made the interesting announcement that, according to the report of Mr. W. H. Hand, State high school inspector, there were only three private boarding schools in South Carolina entitled to be classed as A grade schools, and these were the Carlisle Fitting School at Bamberg, the Wofford Fitting School at Spartanburg, and the Porter Military Academy in Charleston. It will thus be seen what fine work is being done at the school here, and all is needed is a new dormitory to accommodate those who will come if proper facilities are provided. The matter is squarely up to the people of Bamberg. They can provide for enlarged usefulness of the school if they will and never miss the money. In fact they could make no better investment from a purely business standpoint.
